To Mr. Braddleford, express messenger from Rolta, we are indebted for advices from Springheld up to Monday evening, at which time the alage propristo. Burden, left for Rolta.

General Lyon with his forces had fallen back on Springheld, and was proparing for a vigorous defonce. He reachest Springheld on Monday morning. The rebels were advancing on He latter place by four different roads, and their edvance was uscertained to be from ton 10 lifton miles distant. Three of the routes remembered by our informant, on which the enemy were nivering, were the Neosho, Carthage, and the Overland roads. General Lyon called in two thousand five lundred Home Guards from the neighborhood. Further than this addition to his force, no other reinforcements seemed to be near. force, no other reinforcements seemed to be near. Cals. Stevenson and Wymin were at Rolla yesterday morning with n force of two thousand men. It was expected that the enemy were resolved on an immediate attack from the fact that their commissariat was in a misorable condition, the robles depending on forced contributions.

their commissariat was in a misorable condition, the rebels depending our forced contributions for temporary supplies. They live from "hand to mouth," and necessity oldines them, after running over the country and destroying all within their reach, to fight or starve. It was generally remarked in Springfield that Gen. Lyon was perfectly confident of auccess, in the event of an attack, but some entertained apprehensions. A convoy of sixty wagons, with provisions, had orrived at Springfield—a favorable circumstance in view of possible contingencies.

The rumors of an attack upon the camp at Cape Girardeau are entirely untrue. The Democrat

THE KNIGHTS OF THE GOLDEN CIRCLE the Golden Circle in publishing their Rituals, signs, passwords, &c., was a death-blow. The Order may linger on for a time, but the remheen republished everywhere except in the South, the papers of that section not having the virtue or the courage to aid in revealing the character of an order devoted to disunion, no matter how shameful and wicked its principles may be. Three or four of the secession newspapers evidently grateful to the Knights of the Golden Circle for Iheir active and important political aid, have spoken of our exposition as "bogus." None of them, audacious as they are, have ventured to assert directly that our exposition was not genuiue and strictly correct, for They know that it was, and they furthermore know that they could not assert the contrary without causing themselves to be regarded by the universal public as unscrupulous falsiticrs. If we deemed it at all necessary for the ac complishment of an important purpose to provo the genuineness and truth of what we published, we could readily do so, but it is not necessary, for no one has or can have an honest doubt upon the subject. How we obtained the secrets of the Order we shall never state it is enough to any that we received them in such a way that we had a right to give them to the world.

The enrd that Mr. Ricketts published in the c'ty papers two or Three days after the appearance of our exposition was of itself not only evidence but proof of the truth of our publication. Knights of the Golden Circle in the city were insuliously or openly accosing each other of having betrayed the secrets of the order to us, and Mr. Ricketts, being one o the accused, said in his card that he was no guilty, and that his acensers were liars and seoundrels. If what we gave to the public had not been the real scerets and mysteries of the organization, there would have been no criminations and recriminations among the Knights as to who was the traitor. All o them would have laughed at the whole thing as e jest at our expense and the expense of our friends, and Mr. Ricketts would have felt himself under no necessity of denying imputations and stigmatizing their authors as slanderers and villains. The number of Knights of the Third Degree in this city, and, we presume, in most other cities, is very small in comparison with the members of the First and Second Degrees In Louisville at the present time, there are but thirteen members, whose names, if we may G. Glavis, Wm. E. Jones, 11. C. McCorkle, W. B. Hoke, J. Bast, A. A. Urban, J. W. Force, E. D. Ricketts, J. H. Watson, P. A. > LIMITED MONARCHY-STRONG CENTRAL GOVERNMENT .- The Union men of Kentucky or months past have warned the people against the abandonment of a Government in which the rights of the people are now and have alvays been most fully guarded and protected. They have boldly charged upon the leaders of he secession movement in the Cotton State the purpose of subverting the fundamenta principles of free institutions which underlie the system of government founded by our fothers, and the establishment in their stead of a strong Central Government bordering upon imited monarchy. The secessionists of Kentucky have denied that any such purpose was entertained by any respectable number of persons in the seceding States. The public well know, that, when this denial was given, the Kentucky seeessionists had no more information apon the subject than the Union mea had They denied the charge, simply because i nited their purposes to do so. And they will deny any and everything which tends in any even the slightest degree to expose the infernal vickedness of secession and treeson. Seeestion itself is an unmitigated cheat, and hence its chief followers have very little regard for

Our readers are already familiar with the xposition which Russell, the correspondent of he London Times, has given of the sentiment f the "gentlemen" of South Carolina. Where ever he went in that State he discovered very general desire amongst the cotton and ice planters to substitute a monarchy in place of our republican government. Everywhere he bund an admiration for British institutions British laws, British sentiments, and British society, and an extensive longing to go again ander the yoke of a British King or Queen. But the testimony of Mr. Russell is not the only evidence of the purpose of the revolutionists to make an entire change in our system of

In that case we might have smends made the next day, but "fixing" it for Saturdaye is very inconvenient, because we have to do without our Eastern muil for three days. We have had no mail from that quarter since last Fiidny, and the same inconvenience has happened several times recently.

REDEL OUTRAGES IN SOUTHERN KENTYCKY .-A party of six young men, between the eges of tifteen end twenty, arrived in this city on Saturday evening from the vicinity of Columbus, Kv. Four of the number are named Busby and the other two are named Harp. These young men give a distressing account of the state of ellairs in the vicinity of Columbus. On Sunday last an officer from the Southern camp at Union City visited the neighborhood of Columbus and warned ten families to leave within two hours. There was some hesitation on the part of the Union men, and thoy were called upon egain before the time expired and warned that they could choose the alternative between hanging and leaving. Mr. Busby, the father of two of the young men who arrived here is en aged man, nearly blind, and hes a family of six young children. In addition is no accusation whatever against the individuals Their feet were hlistered, their clothes torn, and their flesh lacereted. They were forced to travel at night and lie by during the day, in order to at night and lie by during the day, in order to the session.

If we proceeded much larger up the fixed two uses in the proceeded much larger up the fixed two uses of the union men of East Tenfort the rainy season in December next, which and delay the missionary party nearly a whole year. So we determined to return to the sess at whom they encountered on their way. The party left this city vesterday for Shelby county, where they have relatives.

Another Invention of the Linear,-By no extra from the office of the St. Louis Herald we are assured that a personel collision had occurred at Springfield between Generals Lyon and Sigel. in which General Lyon had been killed. It is also stated that the report is confirmed by a gertleman who arrived in the city yesterday from St. Louis. We place no confidence whatever in the rumor. WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.
Lale this evening Prince Napoleon returned, with his suite, from Manassas. Three regiments of cavalry and four of rebel infantry hold poesession of Fairfax Court House. It was known at Manassas that Prince Napoleon was coming. The enthusias m was wild. Be regard and Johnston were both at Manassas They received the Prince with the greatest possible respect. All their pressing invitations and entreaties that he would come to Richmond and see President Davis the on to Richmond and see President Davis 11 rince firmly declined. The fortifications at Manassas are formidable, and our guns, particularly of Sherman's battery, form an important part of the defences. Besuregard informed the Princu that he captured sixty-two guns at the battle of hull Run. The dead were not properly buried. They were simply put under ground, and some of the feet were seen above. The soldiers in Manassas were numerous but poorly dressed. At the departing the robels gave the Prince a salute with United States guns. On returning to Fairfax, Colonel Stawart approached the carriage of the Prince and shid: "I hope you like our fortifications." Prince—"Oh, protty well." "I hope," said Stewart again, "you will interfere for us tiens." Prince—"Oh, protty well." "I hope," said Slewart again, "you will interfere for us when you go! home."
